

Researching in Northamptonshire

Monday 9 June 2025 2pm – 3.30pm

Book a place at: www.tinyurl.com/484pk5bz

Are you researching ancestors from Northamptonshire?

Don't miss this free event, where you can connect with experts from the local family history society and local archives to discover the wealth of resources available.

This is a collaboration event between the Society of Genealogists, Northamptonshire Family History Society and Northamptonshire Archives Service

Join us to learn about family history resources for Northamptonshire

Angela Malin from Northamptonshire FHS will talk about:

- Northants FHS and what it has to offer - including their wide range of memorial inscription publications covering over 225 parishes, resources on the Members' Area of their website and their extensive knowledge of the area.
- The background to the historic administration of the county which to help you locate records.
- Northamptonshire resources including local history societies, museums and other online sources for the county.

Sarah Bridges from Northamptonshire Archives will talk about:

- Parish Chest Project – a composite listing of all the poor law documents including settlement, removals, apprenticeships, bastardy, freemen and associated records.
- Occupational resources specific to the county including the boot, shoe and leather trades industry
- WW1 Military Tribunal records – Northamptonshire being one of only a few counties where records survive
- Estate collections and manorial records and how they can help you with your research (Northamptonshire is known as the county of spires and squires)
- Hospital and Asylum records along with other special collections they hold.

Else Churchill from Society of Genealogists will talk about:

- Resources held by the Society covering Northamptonshire.

Following the presentation, there will be an opportunity for you to ask questions from the panel representing Northamptonshire Archives, Northamptonshire FHS and Society of Genealogists